

IMPROVEMENT.

Ex-Secretary Blaine, While Propped Up in Bed,

Looks Upon the Flowers in the Lawn in Front of His Window.

His Improvement Only a Postponement of the Inevitable—The Renewal of the Faint to a Warmer Climate the Doctor Refuses to Discard.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The improvement in Mr. Blaine's condition is a matter of pleasant comment on all sides, even though it means no more than what all people believe—a mere postponement for a little while of the inevitable.

Wednesday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, Mr. Blaine felt so well that he insisted upon being braced up on the pillows so that he could look out of the window that his bed faces. Upon this window are the lawn and summer flower beds in the open space adjoining the department of justice.
Beyond that is Pennsylvania avenue with its moving current of pedestrians, fashionable promenaders, fine turnouts of every description and clanging cab cars. Across the avenue to the eyes of the dying statesman appear the granite walls of the treasury, the graceful front of the white house, and beyond them the splendid white obelisk of the Washington monument outlined against azure bending over the pillars of Arlington house upon the far Virginia heights. Fitting is that the statesman in his last moments should have a glance at this picture should be the last upon which his eyes rest.

The change in the weather doubtless has had much to do in the improvement of Mr. Blaine's condition, so sensitive is he to all influences. For the first time in a week the sun shone to his windows Wednesday morning and he greeted the bright light with a smile and whispered a request to put the window shades higher.

While Dr. Johnson speaks with pleasure of the condition of his distinguished patient, he shakes his head sadly when asked if there is any hope of ultimate recovery, and did the same when asked by your correspondent if he thought there was any probability of Mr.
Blaine's being able to stand a trip to a sunnier and warmer climate.

"Mr. Blaine is much better this evening," said Dr. Johnson, in reply to the usual inquiry. "I called to see him tonight and found him exceedingly cheerful for him in his condition. His voice was much louder than of late, his eyes brighter. In fact, he is so much improved that I shall not repeat my visit Wednesday evening unless summoned by the family, and that I do not expect."

"Does Mr. Blaine sit up during any portion of the day?"
"Oh, yes, Mr. Blaine is much stronger than the outside world has been led to believe. In fact, his condition at no time has been as critical as has been stated in the newspapers. It is true that Mr. Blaine was for a few minutes a very sick man, at one time Sunday last, but he was not in any danger, as believed by some. Mr. Blaine is still very ill, but he is in no immediate danger of death."

"Do you think that Mr. Blaine's present show of improvement will warrant his removal to a more congenial climate in the near future?" After meditating a few seconds, the doctor said: "I can not say to that; it is useless to look that far into the future."

While Mr. Blaine's physicians are at discreet in their attentions as men can will be, their tone and manner of expression impress those who converse with them daily with the fact that his case is hopeless; that while he is in no immediate danger, his malady must prove fatal, and that his span of life is measured by the progress of the disease with which he is afflicted.

A New Canadian Annexation Organ.
TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 23.—The first issue of an evening paper called The Sun, made its appearance here last Monday night. Its avowed object is to advocate the annexation of Canada to the United States. In its "salutary" it says that the annexation of Canada is a lack of like progress has been and is entirely due to our unhappy separation from the republic of the United States.
"We have no hesitation in saying that we are unmindful of her great services on behalf of human freedom, but our hearts and energies should be devoted to improving the condition of our own people."

Releaves Forester's Funeral.
St. Louis, Dec. 23.—The funeral of Edward Forester, an assistant city treasurer, who committed suicide Monday, took place at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning at his father's residence in Rector-ville. The funeral was a very private one, and immediate family friends being present. The remains were interred in Bellefontaine cemetery.

The Coming Duel.
PARIS, Dec. 23.—The coming duel between M. Clemenceau, editor of Le Justice, and M. Drouot, editor of Le Liberateur, has been granted the choice of weapons, and both men say they intend to fight a duel to the death.

Due Settlement at a Judgment.
Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 23.—A woman named Cook recently sued a Creek Indian for unpaid wages and secured a judgment in the U. S. court. A party of Indians called at the man's house, bound and carried him into the woods, where his body was found hanging to a tree.

The Whittier Memorial Service.
HAVERHILL, Mass., Dec. 23.—The Whittier memorial service, under the auspices of a committee appointed by the city council, will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and was attended by a great gathering of men and women distinguished in the literary world.

Congressman Harter's bill to reorganize state banks goes to the extreme of state's rights. His bill would make the banks amenable only to state laws and out of the reach of Congress.

With silver produced at a cost of 45 cents an ounce, the actual silver in a standard dollar is worth 35 cents and the free coinage families want Congress to issue an edict that henceforth 35 cents shall be 100. That is about the size of the situation.

Perhaps the able gentlemen who think the repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchase bill would stop the exports of gold are also of the opinion that a dinner string tied around one's little finger will stop nose-bleeds. The operation of the law of cause and effect seems to be equally lively in both cases.

The Supreme Court of Louisiana has declared unconstitutional the law passed two years ago and known as the "Jim-crow" law, making it compulsory on railroads to provide separate cars for negroes. While our own Supreme Court has its hand in it, it might take a whack at Kentucky's Separate Coach legislation.

General Dryfover, the Texas cloud puncher, calls himself a scientist, and all because of his unsuccessful efforts to knock rain out of the sky by exploiting dynamite in the upper air. It is much as if a man who spends his time in chasing the perpetual motion phantasm should call himself an inventor and a discoverer.

The foreign steamship lines say they will try to destroy the World's Fair by their business of bringing poverty, pestilence and crime to this country; it is interfered with by the United States Government. The first overt act on their part in the direction they name ought to meet with a rebuke from this country that would result in their bankruptcy.

The declaration of the transatlantic steamship companies that their suspension of steamer passenger business means fewer vessels and higher prices for European travelers who want to visit the World's Fair next summer is merely a threat which is full of sound and fury, signifying nothing. The active principle of competition among the steamship companies will keep passenger rates down to a fair basis in spite of all efforts to lift them to the level of monopoly extortion. Moreover, the companies would hardly advance rates to an unreasonable basis, even if it were possible to do so. They have an undig-nified fondness for the goose that lays the golden eggs, and are much more likely to pet her than to kill her.

PERSONAL

Mr. G. S. Wall has returned from Frankfort.

Mrs. John M. Hunt will spend Christmas with relatives at Irwinton.

Mrs. Duke Watson and daughters are spending the week at Cincinnati.

Hon. C. B. Poynt, Railroad Commissioner, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. D. C. Ellis and niece, Miss Nellie Chambers, are visiting G. W. Chambers, No. 611 Forest avenue.

Mrs. Mary Dudley left yesterday afternoon for her home at Hillsport, after a visit to the family of Postmaster Davis.

Miss Phoebe H. Forman of the Georgetown Female Seminary will arrive to day to spend the holidays with her mother at Washington.

Miss Mary Spillman, the accomplished teacher of music at Hayswood, left yesterday to spend the holidays at her home in Garrard county.

Not From a Financial Standpoint.

I do not recommend Chamberlain's point, for we have others in stock on which we make a larger profit," says Al-praise. We sell more of it than of any similar preparation we have in the store."

A Social Session.

"A Social Session," one of the most splendid farces ever written, has been rewritten and revised and it now appears a novel and attractive creation, full of fun and studied with gems of music and songs. With the company is the celebrated Black Hussar Band and famous orchestra. A Social Session will be held at the Opera house Saturday night, and an evening of mirth is promised all who attend the performance.

Complimentary.

Rev. W. O. Cochrane will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning.
He goes the first of the year to accept a call to the church at Maysville. Mr.
Cochrane and his family have endeared themselves to our people during their four years residence here, and we are loath to give them up. Maysville may feel proud of securing him, for they can find no more able Minister nor courteous and Christian gentleman. We rejoice for his every kindness and his courtesy in his new field and trust he will often return here to see the people who love him so well.—Millersburg Correspondent, Kentucky-Citizen.

Suit at Maysville.

William Moffett, the injured C. & O. track-walker, is still in a semi-conscious condition at Brady's Hotel on Second street.
Dr. Owens, the Surgeon on the road, says: "He is getting along very well.
I am sure around about that time, when months brought on by the exposure he was subjected to before found. To my knowledge he has made no connected statement as to how he was hurt. The shock to his brain is so severe that no responsibility can be attached to any anticipated might. His mind is completely clouded and it will be several days before he can talk rationally. One of his hallucinations is that he has been injured thirteen years ago and has been travelling around about that time. This is his mission and that is what the parons and subscribers of a paper expect of it.
It is true that there are gruffs and loves too sacred to be babbling to the world and offshoots things of a domestic nature transpire in which the public has no interest. Such things a decent respect for the feelings of others prompts the proprietors of a paper to refrain from publishing.

But there are happenings in this city almost daily which all the people are concerned about and which are the common talk of the streets, and yet some one will rush to the newspaper offices and request as a personal favor that such things be not published.

The public ought to be held as a man to either share and not be handicapped.

WAR SHIPS.

The Building of Them by Canada for the Lakes

Means a Declaration of War in the Opinion of Gen. Miles.

A Direct Violation of the Treaty of 1817 Which Limits the War Fleet of the United States and Great Britain—He Sees Strangers Ahead.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—"If Canada has built and armed three vessels for service on the lakes as described by the officers of the revenue marine service at Washington it amounts to a declaration of war," said Maj.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles Wednesday, alluding to the report that the dominion has increased its armed force on the great lakes. "I do not want to be quoted as saying that Canada or Great Britain means war," said Gen. Miles. "The fact is, though, that these three vessels are in direct violation of the treaty of 1817, which limits the war vessels that either our government or Great Britain can maintain on the lakes to a certain number and limits their gun power. The action of the Canadian authorities in building the vessels described by the officers of the revenue marine service violates the treaty in both particulars.

"England can send a large fleet of light-draught war vessels up the St.
Lawrence river into the great lakes, which could burn every town from Duluth to Detroit, and the singular thing is that the United States will not do so scarcely anything by way of defense, so far as doing battle on the water is concerned, for, while we have some light war ships that could get through the canal, we could not get them to the upper lakes for the reason that they would be liable to pass through British possessions, and that Canada or Great Britain would not allow.

FOR NOT VOTING.

Gen. Miles has a list showing that the British have built thirty-one protected cruisers, eighteen unprotected cruisers, twenty torpedo vessels, fifty-four gun vessels, two armored vessels, six dispatch vessels, and five armed steamers, of draught light enough to allow their passage through the Welland canal.

Mr. CALDWELL, a prominent Ohio member of the House Committee on Postoffice and Postroads, believes that the penny postage proposition recommended by Postmaster General W. H. PIERCE in his annual report is perfectly feasible, and he will offer an amendment to the Postoffice Appropriation bill reducing the rate of letter postage to one cent for every half ounce. The proposition heretofore has been to cut the present rate of one cent for two cents in half, making a penny rate for one ounce. The latest proposition of a half ounce for a penny would not reduce the income from the letter postage to so large an extent and is, therefore, not subject to the objection that has been urged to penny postage in the past.

Any project that tends to the greater glory and prosperity of the United States as a Nation is hateful to Bourbon De- mocracy. Particularly is this the case when the Republican party is known to have the project.

Here, for example, is The Charleston News and Courier attacking the Nicaragua Canal and vociferously protesting against a Government guarantee of that grand enterprise. It is nothing to this Democratic organ that the South would be the most of all benefited by a waterway across the isthmus; that some of its foremost champions are Southern men; or that the National Democracy stands pledged to it by the Chicago platform.
The fact that the Republican press favors National guarantee of the canal stock is enough to call for abusive condemnation of the canal and its promoters.

The News and Courier sitting idly down to an un-American attack on the canal with a scurrilous sneer at Union veterans as "our paupers in blue," a taunt which betrays the real animus of the discreditable policy which the section of the Democracy it represents is pursuing.

DICK KYLER, ex-Mason man who escaped from a Deputy Sheriff in New York last Saturday, is still free. He is believed to be on his way to San Francisco, where he has a married sister.

There is some talk in river circles of the Bellevue and Phoebe being placed in the trade between Huntington and Cincinnati, to run on schedule time and make three trips each per week the same as they did when the "Railroad Line" was in vogue, and there may be an attempt to hold the river passenger trade. Every other part of the Ohio river holds its own despite the competition of the railroads.

Busy Plotting Against the French Republic.

The Excitement in Paris Intensifies Than Ever.

The Duke of Orleans Would Lead the Insurgents in Case of an Attack On Paris—Government Troops Ready to Crush the Revolutionists.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—The excitement over the Panama canal scandal was Wednesday greater than ever and the wilder reports are about as usual. The excitement is directly attributable to the scandal.

Another rumor is placed by the official and despotic, as well as civilians, connected with the Panama scandal, have had it intimated to them that the only salvation lies in an expedition of royalist schemes and that all their offenses will be condoned, if they will consent to be the public.

Some confusion is placed by well-informed persons in both these rumors and it is apparent that royalist agents have assumed an activity they had not displayed for years and there is no evidence that royalist money is again about.

Should affairs take a favorable turn it is probable, according to current talk that the young duke of Orleans would be selected to lead the attack. The young duke is now studying in England and has a military and naval education.

The great difficulty in the way of a royalist coup is that there are no signs of disloyalty in the army. Mr. Deffroy, minister of war, has been informed by the scandals that have been his colleagues, Rouvier, and he has the devoted and loyal attachment of the general in his command.

The military forces in the neighborhood of Paris are kept under the strictest discipline, and the greatest vigilance is exercised to prevent any contact with the troops. The officers of the army are, as a rule, of republican sympathies, the royalist and Bonapartist elements, and especially the latter, having been relegated on various texts, to innocuous positions.

The government, it is said, has no doubt of the fidelity of the army and would at once call upon the garrison of Paris in case of an outbreak on the part of the royalists.

What policy the government of the republic is also checked by the report, made current unofficially, but not doubted by anybody, that in the event of an insurrection martial law would be proclaimed, and every insurgent captured in arms either shot on the spot or executed after a summary court-martial.

LIVES LOST In the burning of a French Village—Forty-four killed and injured.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—A most disastrous conflagration has occurred at Berson, a village of Gironde, and 14 of the villagers were killed and 44 injured.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock and spread with rapidity. The flames, fanned by a high wind, spread with rapidity. The flames, fanned by a high wind, spread with rapidity.

Attention was then turned to saving the aged and the infirm children, and it was in this work of rescue that several of the villagers lost their lives.

The greater part of the village was destroyed, and the inhabitants are in great straits owing to the lack of food and proper clothing. The residents of surrounding villages are doing all in their power to alleviate their sufferings.

Canada Will Remove Immigration. MONTREAL, Dec. 22.—Matters pertaining to the settlement of the Canadian Canadian territory are receiving increased attention from the different railway and steamship companies.

The gentlemen who took part in the conference held in this city last November say they are only waiting to know what policy the dominion government will adopt in this very important question, and when it is announced, he feels sure that by the combined efforts of the Ottawa authorities and the big railway and several steamship companies Canada will be filled up with surprising rapidity.

A Nicaragua Canal Memorial. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Morgan presented to the senate Wednesday the joint memorial of the senators and representatives of the United States.

The memorial is a memorial of the committee of the Nicaraguan canal convention, asking aid in the construction of the canal, was also presented.

The Anti-Pollution Bill. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Most determined efforts are being made to defeat the anti-pollution bill.

The Missing Cook Arrested. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 22.—Patrick O'Connell, the missing cook, was arrested today at Chicago.

Physician Arrested. ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 22.—Dr. Hinkley and son shot Dr. Wortham to death in America Wednesday. Crowds are gathering around the jail threatening to break the windows.

GERMAN OPINION.

They Call Us a Nation of Barbarians and Money Grubbers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Elliott L. Bosa gave a lecture at the German American Club, on the subject of the German Republic.

"The people in Germany are greatly stirred up," Mr. Bosa said, "over the one-sided policy of the German government, stopping steamship passengers and detaining vessels."

Mr. Bosa said that the German government is only too glad to support the American government for what the papers call the medieval customs of the Yankee Nation.

THE Kentucky state law forbids prize fighting; it matters not whether it is for points or if two-ounce or five-ounce gloves are used. If it's a fight for a prize it is against the state law and is made a penitentiary offense.

CHRISTMAS Day will fall on the Sabbath coffee, about 1650.

MARTIN Foy, a prisoner in the Ballston, N. Y., Penitentiary, was chained to the floor of his cell after his third attempt to escape. He pulled hair from his mattress and stuffed it under the cell door and set fire to it, intending to burn the prison. The flames were extinguished before any damage was done.

INVESTIGATION LEADS TO KNOWLEDGE, AND KNOWLEDGE IS POWER IN ALL BUSINESS.

as in other walks of life. The opportunity is here, and all you have to do is to grasp it and it is yours. No doubt you have learned that the Old Reliable Red Corner Building is to be remodeled after the holidays, and there is but one thing to do, and that is to get the large stock of CLOTHING, &c., out of the building before the workmen commence. This is no scheme to gull the consumer, but an actual fact which has been put off as long as possible, and now they must go at your price, not ours. Our immense stock will be thrown on the market SATURDAY MORNING, and will continue the cut prices until everything is closed out, from a Collar Button to the Finest Suit and Overcoat sold in the city. Do not listen to anyone, but come, see and be convinced.

Respectfully,

OLD RELIABLE RED CORNER CLOTHING HOUSE.
